

The New Indian Express

Free computers

Hong Kong-based AsiaticNet has launched iT, the first free computer specifically designed to provide Internet access that empowers India's lower-income individuals and small business to enrich their lives. •EFB